“Armour of God: The breastplate of righteousness”

Ephesians 6:14

A warm welcome to our regulars and visitors to this delightful Sunday morning. We pray you are blessed as we worship together this morning.

Lisa Richards will read Psalm 119:17-24 and Ruth Midavaine will open in prayer. Pastor Terry Allen will do the announcements and continue his new series on The Armour of God. Geoff Skerry will lead us in the LORD's Supper.

The Children have exciting activities to enjoy up at the Youth Shed when directed in the service.

Members of the Prayer Team will be on the front couches, if you need prayer after the service.

Morning tea will be on this morning and all are welcome!

BIBLE VERSE: The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. 1 Corinthians 1:18 NLT

With long walks and empty stomachs, many students in Madagascar's south struggle to stay in school. Convoy of Hope is helping change that story – and MAF flights are multiplying their effectiveness. “When children receive a meal at school, it does more than fill a stomach. It helps them stay in class, helps parents, and hopefully helps them build a better future,” said Alice Koloina Rahelimalala, director of Convoy of Hope in Madagascar. Convoy of Hope works to bring help and hope to communities in need, whether by feeding children, empowering women, training farmers, or supporting vulnerable families. In Madagascar, the organisation currently focuses much of its work on hard-to-reach villages around the capital, where school canteen programs and community projects help children to stay in class and allow families to gain stability. Through a partnership in the south of the country, the faith-based organisation also supports school canteens in Ejeda, helping children in Madagascar's less-developed south receive regular meals. Reaching remote communities in southern Madagascar can take days by road, but MAF flights help the Convoy of Hope team fly there from the capital in just a few hours, allowing them to supervise school feeding programs, weigh children and assess progress – all in a single visit.

UP CLOSE & BIBLICAL:

If Only...

THE SECRET OF CONTENTMENT

Saturday 16 May
1:30pm - 5:00pm

Ladies, you're warmly invited to an afternoon of encouragement, reflection, and connection.

Together we'll explore the theme, "If Only... The Secret of Contentment."

We all know the feeling - "If only things were different..." At this year's Up Close & Biblical Conference, we'll open God's Word with guest speaker Rachael Budden and discover a contentment that isn't dependent on circumstances, but rooted in Christ.

We'll also enjoy a relaxed afternoon tea together - a chance to connect and encourage one another.

Whether you're feeling the pull of "if only..." or simply longing for a deeper sense of peace, you are most welcome!

Guest Speaker:
Rachael Budden

Rachael's love for the Lord grew during her university years.

She now lives with her husband in Adelaide and helps students love Jesus with the Australian Fellowship of Evangelical Students (AFES).

She also worships at Trinity Church - The Hill. Originally from cold Northern Ireland, Rachael enjoys running and swimming at the beach under Australia's warm sun.
